With 20 years of international legal experience, Paul provides counsel to clients in relation to their most complex and challenging IT and digital transformation programs.

As Co-Chair of DLA Piper's Global Technology & Sourcing practice, Paul is committed to supporting clients to achieve their organizational objectives. Paul is also a member of DLA Piper's Change Council which is responsible for fostering radical change and innovation at the firm, and building on the firm's recognition by the FT as one of the world's top 10 firms for innovation.

In recognition of this work, Paul and his team are ranked Band 1 in both leading legal directories, Chambers Global and Legal 500.

Paul completed his INSEAD Executive MBA in December 2019 (on the Dean's List with Distinction), with a focus on the design and implementation of strategies and new business models that leverage new and emerging technologies to provide a superior sustainable competitive advantage.
