

GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY SUMMIT

Adelmise Rosemé Warner

Lead Employment Counsel

Pandora

Adelmise Rosemé Warner serves as Lead Employment Counsel at Pandora Media, Inc., the leading Internet radio service headquartered in the vibrant Uptown area of Oakland, California. Her responsibilities include advising Human Resources and management on employment matters in the United States, Australia and New Zealand. She also manages employment litigation and responses to administrative claims. Adelmise is a key partner to Human Resources, working to develop and implement strategies and initiatives and ensuring compliance with employment laws.

With 15 years of experience practicing labor and employment law, Adelmise has represented private companies and government entities. Before joining Pandora, Adelmise served as in-house employment counsel at Electronic Arts Inc. in Redwood City, California. Before Electronic Arts, Adelmise was a Senior Labor and Employment associate at an international law firm, based in San Francisco. While a member of that firm, she was seconded to Gap Inc. as an in-house employment counsel. Adelmise also spent several years as an employment attorney at the San Francisco City Attorney's Office.

Adelmise received her J.D. from Hastings College of the Law and her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of California, Berkeley. Some of her favorite stations on Pandora include John Legend, Aretha Franklin, Leela James and Kompa Radio (which offers Haitian music).

www.dlapipertechsummit.com

© 2018 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.