

GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY SUMMIT

Liz Klinger
CEO and Co-founder
Lioness

Liz Klinger is CEO and co-founder of Lioness. Liz has worked in marketing and UX design in diverse areas from finance to automotive to nonprofits. She is also an award-winning artist with work featured in a number of publications and independent shows. Her passion is for products that improve the lives of women around the world.

Liz has been featured in Glamour magazine and among the "Women of the World" in The New York Times and was named a Woman We Love by Ravishly.com. She has also been interviewed on Huffington Post Live's morning show and has spoken about entrepreneurship at Stanford University, UC Berkeley, Cornell University and other top universities.

She holds a B.A. from Dartmouth College and currently resides in the Bay Area.

www.dlapipertechsummit.com

© 2017 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.