Nathaniel McKitterick

Partner
DLA Piper

For over 20 years, Nate McKitterick has been an effective advocate as well as a trusted advisor, resolving insurance, indemnification, and management liability issues for corporations and individual executives. His experience spans a number of risk areas and most industries.

Nate has extensive experience in most forms of insurance coverage: directors and officers liability, commercial general liability, employment practices liability, technology errors and omissions, specialty transactional/M&A products, and other types of property and liability insurance. He also has deep knowledge of indemnification issues ranging from patent-related and other contractual indemnities to management indemnification.
