

GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY SUMMIT

Nick Washburn

Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer
Intel Capital

Nick Washburn is a Managing Director and the Chief Operating Officer of Intel Capital, which invests in innovative startups targeting artificial intelligence, autonomous driving, workload accelerators, 5G connectivity, virtual reality and a wide range of other disruptive technologies. Since 1991, Intel Capital has invested US $12.3 billion in 1,530 companies worldwide and more than 660 portfolio companies have gone public or been acquired.

Nick's career experience includes venture capital equity and debt investments, public and private company M&A, leveraged buyouts, leveraged recapitalizations, restructurings, IPOs, PIPEs, dispositions, tender offers, spinoffs, joint ventures, hostile takeovers, corporate takeover defensive measures and portfolio company management, including complex cross-border transactions. Nick was recently co-named #6 on the Global Corporate Venturing Rising Stars Awards 2018 list of the top 100 rising stars in the corporate venture capital ecosystem.

Nick previously served as a Managing Counsel (Americas) and a Senior Attorney for Intel Capital. Prior to joining Intel Capital, Nick worked at prominent international law firms in Palo Alto and New York. He is a graduate of the Villanova University School of Law (magna cum laude, Order of the Coif) and the College of the Holy Cross.

www.dlapipertechsummit.com