

GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY SUMMIT

Brandon Pace

Senior Vice President, Legal LendingClub

Brandon Pace is the Senior Vice President, Deputy General Counsel, Assistant Secretary and Head of Corporate Legal for LendingClub. At LendingClub, Brandon manages the company's corporate legal functions, including contracts, corporate reporting and filing, intellectual property, investigations and litigation, licensing, operations, privacy, real estate, and regulatory change and compliance.

Before joining LendingClub, Brandon was the Vice President, Deputy General Counsel for eBay, which for many years also owned PayPal. At eBay, he had global responsibility for asset protection, investigations and litigation, patents and open source, regulatory matters, and technology transactions.

In his many years of private practice preceding eBay, Brandon worked primarily for international law firms representing technology and financial companies in commercial, intellectual property, and investigation and litigation matters.

www.dlapipertechsummit.com

© 2018 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.