P. Bart Stephens

Founder and Managing Partner
Blockchain Capital

P. Bart Stephens is Founder and Managing Partner of Blockchain Capital, the most established VC firm in the Blockchain sector, the first VC firm to raise a venture fund through an ICO, and the most active VC investor in the sector, with 75 portfolio companies across four funds. Their focus and domain proficiency give them early knowledge of upcoming ventures as they are sought after as a strategic partner, investor and brand, unlocking opportunities that aren't otherwise available and resulting in outstanding returns. Mr. Stephens is also a Managing Partner and Founder of Stephens Investment Management, a family-owned and operated hedge fund and venture capital firm. Mr. Stephens has a background of 20 years as both an operating entrepreneur and a venture capitalist. He earned a B.A. in Political Science from Princeton University.
