Matt Larson is an analyst with Bloomberg Intelligence, a research platform catered to investment professionals on the Bloomberg Terminal that provides in-depth analysis and data sets on industries and companies, as well as the government, credit, litigation and economic factors that can impact decision-making. Matt's research focuses on the technology sector, with particular emphasis on intellectual property matters and anticipating the potential impact of high-tech lawsuits or litigation trends on the financial markets.

Before joining Bloomberg, Matt worked as a patent attorney in Silicon Valley and Washington, DC, representing clients in private negotiations and before district courts, the US Patent Office and the US International Trade Commission.
