Roseanne Wincek joined IVP in March 2015. She focuses on investing in later-stage, high-growth consumer and enterprise companies.

Roseanne currently serves as a board member for MasterClass and a board observer for KeepTruckin and has actively worked on IVP's investments in Compass, Cyence, Glossier, Looker, Lulus, MuleSoft (CRM), Qubole and TransferWise.

Roseanne was previously a Principal at Canaan Partners, a leading early-stage venture firm, where she invested in companies including Metacloud (acquired by CSCO), Turo and UNIFI Software.

Roseanne's tech career started when she co-founded imthemusic and built apps on the early Facebook platform while working on a Ph.D. at Berkeley. She has been a product manager at NextBio (acquired by Illumina) and an associate at McKinsey & Co in New York.

Roseanne holds an M.B.A. from the Stanford Graduate School of Business, where she served as Co-President of the VC Club and Chair of the Social Committee, as well as an M.A. in Biophysics and a B.S. in Chemistry, both from the University of California, Berkeley.
