

DLA PIPER GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY SUMMIT

Andrew Ledbetter

Partner Co-Chair, Public Company and Corporate Governance Practice
DLA Piper

Andrew Ledbetter brings a wide range of experience to the corporate and securities practice.

He regularly represents public companies in SEC periodic and current reporting, proxy statements, and related corporate and disclosure advice. Andrew has advised in dozens of initial public offerings, stock exchange listings, secondary offerings, public and private M&A deals, international transactions, PIPEs, spinoffs, going private transactions and other transactions. He has also represented numerous private companies, VC funds and other investors, and placement agents in venture transactions, as well as private funds and investment advisers in formation and organizational issues, Form ADV and securities compliance and related matters. Andrew leverages his broad securities knowledge to advise clients on emerging financing trends, such as crowdfunding, Reg A+ and initial coin offerings (ICOs), token generation events or similar distributed ledger or blockchain-enabled means for raising capital.

www.dlapipertechsummit.com

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.