Joscha Schmitz

Head of Energy & Climate for APJ hyperscale data centre specialist
AirTrunk

Joscha Schmitz is Head of Energy & Climate for APJ hyperscale data centre specialist, AirTrunk. In this role, Joscha leads the company's energy, carbon and water strategy, developing initiatives to position AirTrunk as a leader in sustainability and efficiency. Joscha played a critical role in the development of AirTrunk's net zero strategy and the company's renewable energy projects.

Prior to AirTrunk, Joscha was general manager for Aggreko, an energy service business operating across seven APAC markets, and provided energy advisory at Baringa Partners in the UK. Joscha is based in Singapore.
