

European Technology Summit

Drew Bagley

Vice President & Counsel, Privacy and Cyber Policy, CrowdStrike

Drew Bagley, Esq. is CrowdStrike's Chief Privacy Officer, responsible for leading CrowdStrike's global data protection initiatives, privacy strategy and policy engagement. Mr. Bagley joined CrowdStrike more than a decade ago after working in the FBI's Office of General Counsel. He is part of CISA's JCDC, Europol's Advisory Group on Internet Security, the U.S. Department of State's International Digital Economy and Telecommunication Advisory Committee, and the DNS Abuse Institute's Advisory Council. He served on the ICANN CCT Review Team and the President's NSTAC Abuse of Domestic Infrastructure Subcommittee. Mr. Bagley, a former German Chancellor Fellow, teaches at American University and co-hosts the Start Here: Cyber Fundamentals for Policymakers podcast.

www.dlapipertechsummit.eu

© 2025 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.