

European Technology Summit

Uljan Sharka

Founder and CEO
iGenius

Uljan Sharka is Founder and CEO of iGenius, the AI company behind crystal, the first virtual advisor for data intelligence. He was previously a consultant at Apple.

Uljan leads iGenius' strategy and mission to bridge the gap between people and data using groundbreaking technology such as Natural Language Processing and Machine Learning.

A rising star in European AI innovation, Uljan was mentioned at the Web Summit, TechCrunch Disrupt and Startup Grind, among other events. He also featured in the Silicon Valley Business Journal.

Under Uljan's leadership, iGenius was selected by Facebook's Accelerate program for thriving startups, and as a Google Cloud Platform case study for top use of Machine Learning, cloud technologies and fast data retrieval.
