Imogen Palmer

Associate Legal Counsel

Google Cloud

Imogen is a legal counsel at Google with a focus on AI/ML, and most recently product counselled the highly anticipated launch of Google Cloud's first generative AI text-to-image generation model (named Imagen). Imogen supports Google Cloud's EMEA's Sales team on AI/ML deals more generally as well as Google Cloud's go-to-market strategy for the legal sector. She co-founded Google Cloud's Legal Community, which recently launched with an inaugural event on Generative AI & the Legal Sector. Outside of her day-to-day work, Imogen mentors aspiring law students and helps with recruitment efforts for Google Legal.
