

European Technology Summit

Anya Cummins

Head of Financial Advisory
Deloitte

Anya is the Head of Financial Advisory Ireland. Anya has almost 20 years' of experience advising corporates on buy-side transactions, sell-side transactions and capital raisings. She joined the Deloitte Corporate Finance team in 2004 and spent 7 years advising on mid-market buy side, sell side and equity capital raising transactions. In 2011 Anya joined Cavendish Corporate Finance, a London based advisory boutique, where she spent five years advising entrepreneurs and corporates on the sale of minority and majority stakes and growth capital raisings. Anya was appointed Partner in Cavendish in 2013. Anya re-joined Deloitte as a Partner to lead the M&A team based in Dublin in 2015.

Anya specialises in M&A, incorporating mergers, acquisitions, disposals and equity capital raising. Anya has a significant focus on private equity transactions; in particular in the technology and technology enabled services sector. Some of her recent relevant deals have included advising Bowmark Capital on their investment in Xperience Group, advising Horizon Capital on the exit of software business TotalMobile, advisor to AquaQ Analytics on their investment from Sovereign Capital, advisor to Livingbridge on its investment in Chill Insurance, advisor to creative agency Rothco on the sale to Accenture, advisor to technology services provider Voxpro on the sale to Telus International and advisor to foreign exchange technology provider World First on its investment from US fund FTV Capital.

Anya today leads the Financial Advisory business in Deloitte in Ireland and serves on the Executive Committee of the firm.

www.dlapipertechsummit.eu