Tom O'Connor

CEO

Version 1

Tom O'Connor has a long heritage in Version 1, joining the business in 2001 and spending over 21 years in various roles such as the Head of Consulting, Sales Director, and COO where he was responsible for sales, operations, and organic growth.

On the 1st of April 2017, it was announced that Tom had been appointed CEO of Version 1, taking the reins on one of the fastest growing IT Consulting and Managed Services firms in Western Europe, which now employs 3,200 people across the world, with offices across Ireland, the United Kingdom, Australia, United States, India, Spain and Slovenia

Since taking over as CEO, Tom has led Version 1's growth, tripling both revenue and profits over the last 6 years, through organic growth in UK and Ireland and through 9 acquisitions, including expansion into India, United States, Australia, and Spain. This 20% annual growth rate positioned Version 1 as one of the fastest growing digital transformation companies in Western Europe.
