

European Technology Summit

Lord Tim Clement-Jones

Science, Innovation and Technology spokesperson Liberal Democrats
House of Lords

Lord Clement-Jones is a Consultant on AI Policy and Regulation with global law firm, DLA Piper where former positions held include London Managing Partner (2011-16), Head of UK Government Affairs, Chair of its China and Middle East Desks, International Business Relations Partner and Co-Chair of Global Government Relations.

Tim is the Liberal Democrat House of Lords spokesperson for Science, Innovation and Technology. Former Chair of the House of Lords Select Committee on Artificial Intelligence which reported in 2018 with "AI in the UK Ready Willing and Able?" and its follow-up report in 2020 "AI in the UK: No Room for Complacency". In 2016, co-founded the All-Party Group on Artificial Intelligence.

From 2023, a member of the Industry and Regulators Committee and the initiator of and subsequent member of the Special Inquiry Select Committee into AI in Weapons Systems.

Former member of the House of Lords Select Committees on Communications (2011-15), Risk Assessment and Planning (2020-21) and the Joint Select Committee on the Draft Online Safety Bill (2021-22). Vice Chair for a number of All-Party Parliamentary Groups - including Data Poverty; Data Analytics; Digital Skills; Digital Regulation and Responsibility; and the Future of Work.

A founding member of the OECD Parliamentary Group on AI and a former Consultant to the Council of Europe's Ad-hoc Committee on AI (CAHAI).

Tim is Chair of the Board of Trust Alliance Group (formerly Ombudsman Services), the not for profit, independent ombudsman service that provides dispute resolution for the communications, energy, and parking industries. He is Chair of Council of Queen Mary University of London (QMUL) and President of Ambitious about Autism (formerly Treehouse) an autism education charity and school for children with autism and other communication disorders and its former Chair.

www.dlapipertechsummit.eu