Daniel Grant Smith

Head of Engagement
Legatics

Dan is the Head of Engagement at Legatics, an intuitive legal transaction management platform that simplifies and automates traditional legal processes. Dan is responsible for overseeing relationships with existing customers and driving adoption of the platform.

Dan trained and qualified as an associate at Hogan Lovells for 5 years, working in the Private Equity/M&A team. Prior to joining Legatics he completed an MBA at Cambridge University Judge Business School, with his final research paper focusing on barriers to the practical adoption of LegalTech solutions in law firms, and is passionate about law firm innovation and change.
