

European Technology Summit

Michael Young

Cyber Technical Director

EY

Michael is a Technical Director specialising in Cyber enterprise risk management within the transactions space, advising and working with both Private Equity (and their portfolio companies) as well as Corporate clients throughout the entire transactions lifecycle.

He was a founder member and led the creation of the end to end M&A service offerings for EY's dedicated transactions cyber team.

He has a varied IT background consisting of both multi-sector industry and consultancy experience, holding various IT management and leadership roles at various global firms in various sectors

This varied career has led to him working all over Europe, Asia, the Middle East and North America

Michael's work involves him working on deals that are a few tens of thousands in value all the way up to tens of billions.

He is currently working for the world's largest PE and Global corporates as part of his role at EY

www.dlapipertechsummit.eu

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.