

Middle East Technology Summit

Samuel Salako

Partner

Olajide Oyewole LLP

Samuel Salako is a Partner in the Corporate and Capital Markets practice at DLA Piper Africa, Nigeria, and co-heads the firm's Intellectual Property, Technology, and Employment practices. With over two decades of experience, he advises a diverse portfolio of public and private companies, start-ups, and international subsidiaries on a broad spectrum of corporate and commercial matters. His expertise spans mergers and acquisition, corporate reorganisation and restructuring, governance, capital markets, private equity, and venture financing. Samuel is recognised by Legal 500 EMEA as a Leading Individual in Corporate, Commercial & M&A (2024 & 2025), IFLR1000 as a Notable Practitioner (2023), and by Chambers Global (2023) in Corporate/Commercial.

www.dlapipertechsummit.com/middleeast

© 2025 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.